OPEN DAY - the SILVER LININGS of LOCKDOWN and Gift Day

Saturday October 9th, 2021, 10 am - 4 pm

After such a difficult year we want to celebrate the Silver Linings of Lockdown. Please bring an exhibit to display anything that you have achieved in the last 18 months to the church on Friday October 8th from 2- 4pm or by arrangement.

There will also be a coffee shop, tea room, children's activities and musical entertainment.

Any questions please contact one of the Churchwardens.

October 17th 11.30 am Church House

Come and contribute your ideas for the future in an OPEN DISCUSSION that will contribute to the Profile of the 5 Churches that make up our Benefice.

Coffee and cake will be served!

FOODSHARE @ St John's

There is now a box at the back of Church for gifts of non-perishable food, household products, hygiene items etc for us to offer people who come to the distribution sessions in Church House. The PCC have decided that our Harvest food items will also be given to St John's Foodshare at Harvest festival on Sunday October 10th. Financial gifts will go to Christian Aid.

Please be generous as you can - Foodshare is really helping to make a difference to local families who are struggling. All queries to Elaine Ennis-Bunt 01963 250221

Sunday 26th September 2021

18th Sunday after Trinity Proper 22

Collect

God, our judge and saviour,
teach us to be open to your truth
and to trust in your love,
that we may live each day
with confidence in the salvation which is given through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Readings

Hebrews 1.1-4; 2.5-9

Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets, 2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds. 3 He is the reflection of God's glory and the exact imprint of God's very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, 4 having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

5 Now God did not subject the coming world, about which we are speaking, to angels. 6 But someone has testified somewhere, 'What are human beings that you are mindful of them, or mortals, that you care for them?

7 You have made them for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned them with glory and honour,

8 subjecting all things under their feet.'

Now in subjecting all things to them, God left nothing outside their control. As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to them, 9 but we do see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honour because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone.

Mark 10.2-16

2 Some Pharisees came, and to test him they asked, 'Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?' 3 He answered them, 'What did Moses command you?' 4 They said, 'Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her.' 5 But Jesus said to them, 'Because of your hardness of heart he wrote this commandment for you. 6 But from the beginning of creation, "God made them male and female." 7 "For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, 8 and the two shall become one flesh." 9 Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.'

10 Then in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter. 11 He said to them, 'Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; 12 and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.'

13 People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. 14 But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. 15 Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.' 16 And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

Post Communion Prayer

We praise and thank you, O Christ, for this sacred feast: for here we receive you, here the memory of your passion is renewed, here our minds are filled with grace, and here a pledge of future glory is given, when we shall feast at that table where you reign with all your saints for ever.
