much God has done for you.' So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

Post Communion Prayer

Eternal Father, we thank you for nourishing us with these heavenly gifts: may our communion strengthen us in faith, build us up in hope, and make us grow in love; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord.

St John's Church Sponsor a Date 2022

Please can you help us with the daily running costs of our beautiful and historic building? Choose a date, contribute £30 and phone, email or complete an application form.

FOODSHARE @ St John's

Thank you very much to all who have donated gifts of non-perishable food, household products, hygiene items, etc for us to offer people. These gifts are still vital although we are now also being supported by Sherborne Foodbank.

We now really need more volunteers, either to collect from the Coop or to help with distribution or both. If you are interested, please contact Elaine Ennis-Bunt 01963 250221

Summer Fete

Saturday July 23rd

on Church Lawn in aid of St John's Church

We need help please

- Volunteer to help run a stall especially books, bottles and chocolate.
- Start saving bottles of all sizes and types.
- Donate Tombola prizes, good books, plants etc.
- Prepare to contribute chocolate, home-made cakes, cookies, scones etc
 - Sell raffle tickets.

Please contact Jan Sharpless (250993), Sandra Nicholls (250725), Anne Briggs (251000) or email Anne Salkeld salkeldanne@aol.co.uk

Proceeds from the Fete and Raffle are absolutely crucial to being able to 'balance the books' at the end of the year, so your assistance would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you in anticipation

Collect

God of truth, help us to keep your law of love and to walk in ways of wisdom, that we may find true life in Jesus Christ your Son.

Psalm 42

1. Like as the hart de-/sireth · the / water brooks: so longeth my / soul · after / thee O / God.
2. My soul is athirst for God, * yea even for the / living / God; when shall I come to appear be-/ fore the / presence · of / God?
3. My tears have been my meat / day and / night: while they daily say unto me / ‘Where is / now thy / God?’
4. Now when I think thereupon I / pour out · my / heart: when I remember how I went with the multitude, * and brought them / into · the house of / God,
5. With the voice of / praise and / thanksgiving, among / them that / kept / holy day.
6. Why art thou so full of heaviness / O my / soul: and why art thou / so dis- / quieted · with- / in me?
7. O put thy / trust in / God: for I will yet give him thanks, * who is the help of my / counte · nance, / and my / God.
8. My soul is / heavy · with- / in me: therefore I will remember thee from the land of Jordan, *. and from Mizar a-/ mong the hills of Hermon.
9. One deep calleth to another at the tumult / of thy / waters: all thy / waves and / storms are · gone / over me.
10. The Lord will grant me his loving-kindness / in the / day-time: and in the night-season will I sing of him,* and make my prayer / unto · the / God of · my / life.
11. I will say to unto the God of my strength , ‘Why hast / thou for- / gotten me: why go I thus heavily, while the / enemy · op- / presseth / me?’
12. I am even as one whose bones are / smitten · a-/ sunder : when mine enemies / mock me / to my / face,
13. When they / daily / speak to me: saying / ‘Where is / now thy / God?’
14. Why art thou so full of heaviness, / O my / soul: and why art thou / so dis- / quieted · with- / in me?
15. O put thy / trust in / God: for I will yet give him thanks, * who is the help of my / counte · nance, and / my / God.

Readings

Galatians 3.23-end

Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed. Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham’s offspring, heirs according to the promise.

Luke 8.26-39

Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, ‘What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God?

I beg you, do not torment me’— for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) Jesus then asked him, ‘What is your name?’ He said, ‘Legion’; for many demons had entered him. They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss.

Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying. ‘Return to your home, and declare how
